

WASHINGTON STAR

NOV 21 1954

Service News

Reception for Army Com

By Evelyn M. Dent

The Secretary of the Army and Mrs. Robert T. Stevens will head the receiving line on Monday, November 29, when the Secretariat of the Army entertains at a reception for the Army Commanders, who will be here for a two-day conference.

The 6 to 8 o'clock party will be held in the ballroom of the Officers Club, Fort Lesley J. McNair, and the receiving line will have two or three of the top ranking members of the Army group in line throughout the reception. The Undersecretary of the Army and Mrs. John Slezak will take a turn as will the Assistant Secretary and Mrs. George Holmes Roderrick.

Also present will be Assistant Secretaries and their wives Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Finucane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Higgins and Gen. and Mrs. Hugh M. Milton.

The Army commanders are Lt. Gen. Withers A. Burrell, Fort Totten, New York; Lt. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, Fort George G. Meade, Md.; Lt. Gen. Alexander R. Bolling, Fort McPherson, Augusta, Ga.; Lt. Gen. I. D. White, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex.; Lt. Gen. Hobart R. Gay, Chicago, Ill.; and Lt. Gen. Willard G. Wyman, The Presidio, San Francisco, Calif. They are the commanding generals of the 1st to the 6th Armies. Other guests will be of the Military District of Washington, headed by Maj. Gen. John H. Stokes, jr., and Mrs. Stokes.

The deputy director, Central Intelligence, Lt. Gen. Charles Pierre Cabell and Mrs. Cabell are taking a party of young people with them to the Army-Navy game on Saturday. They will go to Philadelphia on "The Special," and are looking forward to seeing their son Cadet Cabell, jr., who is a plebe at West Point.

In the company will be their son Ben; daughter Catherine and Mrs. Cabell's nephew John F. Marx. Also Melise Ross, Mary Montgomery and Marion Knappen.

They will join Col. Walter Bryte at the game and afterwards will attend the party at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel.

Commanders